Annual Report Format Election

Your decision can help conserve environmental resources and reduce the Company's costs.

Objective makes its Annual Reports available for viewing or downloading on its website at <http://www.objective.com>. By marking the appropriate box you can elect not to receive a printed copy of the company's annual report. However, you will still receive all other shareholder mailings including notices of meetings and proxy forms.

If you would like to receive a notification email when reports become available, please provide your email address in the space provided.

Direct payment of dividends

These can only be made to an Australian bank, credit union or building society.

If you want your dividends to be paid directly into a nominated account, please complete the section on the front of this form. Until you advise otherwise, all future payments in respect of your holding will be paid into the nominated account. Your payment will not be subject to any postal delays, the risk of loss or theft of your cheque will be eliminated and an advice containing full dividend or interest details will be despatched to you by the Registry.

If you change your account for some reason please notify the Registry immediately.

Neither the Company nor the Registry will be responsible for any delays in payments being credited to your nominated account as a result of transaction procedures, errors or delays by any financial institution.

This instruction for your dividend or interest to be paid directly into your account only applies to the specific holding appearing on the front of this form.

If your securities are held in joint names, all holders must sign.

If you are signing as an Attorney then the Power of Attorney must have either been noted by the Registry or be duly stamped and accompany this form when lodging it with the Registry. Only duly authorised officers of a Company can sign on behalf of a Company and you must state the office held by the signatory (eg. Director, Secretary).
